

THE REV. DR. BOLLES RESIGNS.

TO GIVE UP THE PASTORATE OF THE CHURCH OF THE ETERNAL HOPE ON MAY 1.

The Rev. Dr. Edwin C. Bolles, pastor of the Church of the Eternal Hope, in West Eighty-first Street, last week tendered his resignation to the members of his parish, with the request that it take effect on May 1. To most of the members of the church and congregation the step thus taken came as a great surprise, but by others it had been expected. Ever since it was rumored that many members of the Church of the Eternal Hope were in favor of uniting with the Church of the Divine Paternity, whose intention of building a new church at Seventy-seventh and Central Park West has already been announced in The Tribune, there have been various reports afloat with regard to the future of the church, and some of them related to the relations existing between Dr. Bolles and his congregation. When it had become known that he resigned it was reported that this step was the result of trouble in the church. It was also rumored that Dr. Bolles' resignation would be followed by a split in the church, and that many of the members would withdraw from it.

In this report, There was no trouble whatever among the members of the church, he said, and his resignation was consequently not due to anything of that sort. He furthermore declared that he was now, as he had always been, on the best of terms with the members of his church. When asked if he had ever been in conflict with Dr. Bolles replied that he had offered it in the belief that it was best both for himself and for the church. He declined to go further into detail than this.

With regard to the statement that some members of the church would sever their connection with it on account of his resignation, Dr. Bolles said that when a minister resigns his pastorates after a long period of service, some of his friends often influence a number of his parishioners to do so, there being any split in the church or not a trouble of any sort, that was all nonsense.

Dr. Bolles has been pastor of the Church of the Eternal Hope for ten years, and the congregation has been both large and influential.

He often figures as a public meetings and dinners, where his speeches have been as to give him pleasure and profit to his hearers.

Dr. Bolles' plan to give up the pastorate terminates his connection with the Church of the Eternal Hope. He has a number of things in view, but for the present will form no definite plans as to what he will do.

Dr. Bolles' parish has as yet taken no action with regard to his resignation, but it is understood that a parish meeting will soon be called for that purpose.

TWO COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.

CHARLES SMITH AND HIS WIFE, OF BROOKLYN, HAD BEEN MAKING AND PASSING SPURIOUS SMALL CHANGE.

Charles Smith, forty-two years old, and his wife, thirty-eight years old, living on the second floor of the rear tenement at No. 32 Douglas-st., Brooklyn, will be arraigned before United States Commissioner Morle to-day on a charge of having and making counterfeit money. They were arrested yesterday at their home by Detective Murphy and several policemen of the Third Precinct station, in their rooms was found a counterfeiting plant, which consisted of moulds for 25-cent and 50-cent pieces, and several jades. There was a small sum of counterfeit coin in a chest.

Mrs. Smith had a half dollar on Joseph Mandello, a fruit dealer, of No. 24 Smith-st., earlier yesterday morning. Later she gave him another spurious coin, which he took to the Third Precinct station, and he was arrested. Smith said he was a plumber out of work, and he was in the Third Precinct station and his wife in the Amity-st. station. Their two children, Robert, five years old, and James, eight years old, were placed in the care of the Gerty society.

A PACIFIC STEAMER'S ROUGH VOYAGE.

San Francisco, March 15.—The Oceanic Steamship Company's steamer Zealandia got in on Saturday. With head winds, heavy seas and a bottom covered with barnacles, she had a hard trip of it on her way to Australia. She was overdue at Auckland, N. Z., and as a hurricane, that not only blew down houses, but caused loss of life, on the island, had developed there, the members of the Government officials were naturally anxious about the small steamer, and vessels were sent out in search of her. On the return trip good time was made until the bad weather again set in, and the northwest wind was encountered. Time and again the ship was driven ashore, several of the crew had narrow escapes. On one occasion a wave broke on board, which not only gutted the cabin, but
